WE SOURCE ALL OF OUR INGREDIENTS RESPONSIBLY.

In our restaurants, we're proud to work closely with local suppliers and producers. By sourcing fresh, seasonal ingredients from nearby farms and businesses, we not only ensure quality and flavour on every plate, but also support the communities we're part of. Partnering locally helps reduce food miles, strengthens regional relationships, and allows us to showcase the best our area has to offer - creating a dining experience that's both sustainable and authentically connected to our surroundings.
